

R&D ONE Inc. and the Ideacia ONE Inc. Group Moves Head Office to Markham, Ontario

For Immediate Release
August, 2011

Markham, ON – This March the Ideacia ONE group of companies, which includes R&D ONE, Strategic Marketing ONE, and M&A ONE, moved their head office to 3100 Steeles Avenue East, Markham, Ontario.

The Ideacia ONE group of companies places a strong emphasis on serving clients who leverage innovation, R&D and technology as their core competitive differentiator. Locating in Markham, a business community recognized as “Canada’s High-Technology Capital,” enables Ideacia ONE, with offices in 5 major cities coast to coast, to effectively service clients across the country.

Markham, Ontario is the home of many leading Canadian technology companies, with over 900 high-tech and life science companies alone. “The growth of R&D ONE and the planned launch of additional Ideacia ONE companies created a need for more space, and we are very excited to be located in the heart of Canada’s technology hub,” says Danny Ladouceur, Principal & Co-Founder.

Ideacia ONE Inc. has signed a long-term lease for space previously occupied by IBM. “The space has all of the amenities necessary to run a boutique consulting firm, with modern décor, a dedicated think tank area, and facilities created specifically to run seminars and training sessions for clients and prospective clients,” explains Jennifer Powers, Principal & Co-Founder.

Ideacia ONE is comprised of a group of specialized boutique consulting firms, including: R&D ONE, Strategic Marketing ONE, and M&A ONE; created to provide business innovators with access to expertise in strategic business modeling & planning, marketing strategy & market research, and R&D funding. Ideacia ONE serves clients who leverage innovation and technology as their core competitive differentiator, and helps them to identify their next move in the growth of their business, partnering with them throughout the entire innovation process beginning with the conception of the idea through to market commercialization. Ideacia ONE, your partner in innovation, your partner for Your Next Move.
